ORDINANCE NO. 255 AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE BUSINESS OF SECOND-HAND DEALERS, SECOND-HAND AUTO-PARTS DEALERS, JUNK DEALERS AND JUNK COLLECTORS.

The City Council of the City of Torrance does ordain as follows: Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to engage in, conduct, manage or carry on the business of second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer, or junk collector, without first having procured a license so to do and having paid the fee for such license as in this ordinance provided.

Section 2. A license must be procured immediately before the commencement of any business or occupation liable to a license fee as herein provided from the City Clerk of the City of Torrance, which license shall authorize the party obtaining the same to transact the business described in such license for the period named therein, in this City. A separate license must be obtained for each branch establishment or separate house or place of business located in this City.

Section 3. All sums of money for license fees provided for by this ordinance are due and payable in advance at the office of said City Clerk, and all licenses herein provided for shall be issued quarterly in advance. Each license shall state the person to whom, and the kind of business, and the location for which the same is issued, the date of issuance, the license period for which the same is issued, and the amount received therefor, and shall refer to this ordinance and be signed by the said City Clerk.

The period of all quarterly licenses shall begin on the first day of January, April, July and October, and where a new license is issued after the beginning of any quarter, a pro rata deduction shall be made in the amount of the fee therefor for each whole calendar month that has expired since the beginning of the quarter up to the time when said license is issued.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the City Clerk to collect the license fees under this ordinance, and to perform such other duties as are by this ordinance prescribed. It shall be his duty, in the name of the City, as plaintiff, to bring suit for the recovery of any license fee imposed against any person required by this ordinance to first procure a license before continuing or engaging in any business as herein defined, who carries on or attempts to carry on such business without such license.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the City Attorney to prosecute all violations of this ordinance on sworn complaint thereto and to act as attorney for the City Clerk for the collection of any unpaid license fees.

Section 6. Every second-hand dealer shall pay a license fee of Three and no/100 Dollars per quarter. For the purpose of this ordinance, a "second-hand dealer" is defined to be a person, firm or corporation, engaged in, conducting, managing or carrying on the business of buying, selling, or otherwise dealing in, either at wholesale or retail, any old rags, socks, bottles, cans, papers, metal or other articles commonly known as junk.

Every junk dealer shall pay a license fee of Three and no/100 Dollars per quarter. For the purpose of this ordinance a "junk dealer" is defined to be a person, firm or corporation, engaged in, conducting, managing or carrying on the business of buying, selling, or otherwise dealing in, either at wholesale or retail, any old rags, socks, bottles, cans, papers, metal, or other articles commonly known as junk.

Every junk collector shall pay a license fee of Three Dollars per quarter for each wagon, vehicle or cart used by him in his business as such junk collector. For the purpose of this ordinance a "junk collector" is defined to be a person, firm or corporation not having a fixed place of business in the City of Torrance, who goes from house to house, or from place to place, gathering, collecting, buying, selling, or otherwise dealing in, or acquiring any old rags, socks, bottles, cans, papers, metal, or other articles commonly known as junk.

Section 7. Any person, firm, or corporation desiring to obtain a license to conduct or carry on or continue any business mentioned or defined in the next preceding section of this ordinance, shall file an application, in writing, therefor with the City Council, and shall file a duplicate copy of such application in the office of the Chief of Police of said City, specifying by street and number the place where such business is proposed to be conducted or carried on, or, in the case of a junk collector who has no fixed place of business, then such application shall specify street and number and town or city of his residence. Said application shall be signed by the applicant and shall contain the address of such applicant. If the applicant is a firm, the applicant shall state the resident addresses of the members of such firm. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall state the resident addresses of the President and Secretary and the managing agent, if any, of such corporation.

Section 8. No license to conduct or carry on any business mentioned in this ordinance shall be granted or issued except upon order of the City Council.

Section 9. Every license granted under this ordinance or any section thereof is granted and accepted by all parties receiving such license with the express understanding that the City Council of the City of Torrance may revoke the same, or the order for the issuance thereof, at any time when it appears to them that any state of facts exists upon which they would be authorized to deny an application for such license, or that the person, firm or corporation to whom such license was issued, or any of his agents, servants or employees, has violated or been convicted of violating any of the terms of this ordinance, or of any other ordinance, or of any law of the State now, or hereafter, in force regulating the occupation or business for which such license was issued, or that the license was obtained by fraudulent representations, or that the holder of the license is an unfit person to be entrusted with the privileges granted by said license, or has conducted his business in an immoral or disorderly manner.

Section 10. Every person, firm or corporation having a license under the provisions of this ordinance shall keep such license posted and exhibited while in force, in some conspicuous part of said place of business. Every person, having such license, and not having a separate license for each day, while carrying on the business or occupation for which the same was granted, every person, firm or corporation, having a license under the provisions of this ordinance shall produce and exhibit the same when applying for a renewal thereof, and whenever requested to do so by any officer authorized to issue, inspect or collect licenses or license fees.

Section 11. Every second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer and junk collector shall on each Saturday before the hour of ten o'clock in the morning make out and deliver to the Chief of Police of said City a blank form to be obtained by such second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer and junk collector, from the office of the Chief of Police of said City for that purpose, a full, true and complete report of all rags, wares, merchandise, automobiles, or other articles received, sold, or otherwise disposed of, or purchased during the week preceding the filing of such report. Such report shall show the hour of the day when such articles were received, on deposit, pledged, or purchased, and the true name and address of the party who is known to or can be ascertained by such second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer or junk collector, of the person or persons by whom such articles were left on deposit, pledged or sold, together with a description of such person or persons, and the make and license number of the car driven, if any. The description to be given of every such person shall show style of dress, height, age, sex, complexion, color of mustache or beard, or both, where the same are worn, and if neither is worn, such report shall show the amount, quantity purchased and complete description of such articles left on deposit, pledged or purchased. If any article so left in deposit, pledged or purchased has engraved thereon any number, word, or initial, or contains any settings of any kind, the description of such article in such report shall contain such number, word or initial, and shall show the kind of settings and the number of each kind. Blanks to be obtained from the office of the Chief of Police as herein provided, shall be printed on separate blank spaces in which shall be written or printed the date of such report, the name and place of business of the person, firm or corporation making the same, and the hour of the day when the same is received in the office of said Chief of Police. Such blanks shall be printed and subdivided as to contain spaces with the proper captions for the furnishing of the information required by this ordinance. A copy of this section of this ordinance shall be printed upon each such blank or upon the back thereof.

Section 12. Every second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer and junk collector shall keep a complete record of all goods, wares, auto-parts, merchandise, or things received, pledged, or purchased by him, or sold or otherwise disposed of, which record shall contain all the matters required to be shown in the reports referred to and described in Section 11 of this ordinance. Every such record and all goods, wares, merchandise, auto-parts as aforesaid, and/or things pledged, purchased or received by any such second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer, and junk collector shall be produced for inspection to any officer holding a warrant authorizing him to search for personal property, or of any person appointed by said Chief of Police, or to said Chief of Police, or to any person holding an order of a committing magistrate or the City Judge of the City Court of said City directing such officer to inspect such register, record or account, or to examine such articles.

Section 13. The said Chief of Police charged in, conducting, managing or carrying on the business of second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer and junk collector, shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for every day during any portion of which any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance is committed, continued, or permitted by such person, firm or corporation, and shall be punished therefor as provided by this ordinance.

Section 14. Every report and record required by the terms of this ordinance to be filed or kept shall be written or printed entirely in the English language, in a clear and legible manner.

Section 15. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, engaged in, conducting, managing or carrying on the business of second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer and junk collector, or for any agent or employee of any such person, firm or corporation, to fail, refuse or neglect to file any report in the form, in the manner, and the time and in all respects in accordance with the requirements of this ordinance, or to fail, refuse, or neglect to keep any record or records in the form and in the manner required by this ordinance, or to fail, refuse or neglect to exhibit to any officer or person referred to in Sections 12 or 13 of this ordinance immediately upon demand for the privilege of such inspection, any such record, records, or any such goods, wares, merchandise, auto-parts, or things, pledged to or purchased or received by any such person, firm or corporation.

Section 16. It shall be unlawful for any second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer and/or junk collector to sell or otherwise dispose of any article or thing within one week after making a report to said Chief of Police as required by Section 11 of this ordinance that such article or thing has been purchased or received by such dealer or collector.

Section 17. The provisions contained in Sections 12 and 16 of this ordinance shall not be deemed to apply to the purchase or sale of junk dealers or junk collectors of rags, bottles, other than milk or cream bottles, second-hand sacks, other than cement sacks, barrels, cans, shoes, lamps, stoves or household furniture (with the exception of sewing machines and musical instruments) or the purchase or sale by second-hand dealers of household furniture, with the exception of sewing machines, musical instruments, typewriters, washing machines, electrical appliances that carry serial numbers, electric drills, motors of every description, electric irons, guns, bicycles, and vacuum sweepers.

Section 18. The provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to the receipt or sale of a second-hand article by any person, firm or corporation that received such second-hand article as part payment of a new article, if such person, firm or corporation is the authorized representative or agent of the manufacturer of the new article sold.

Section 19. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation engaged in conducting, managing or carrying on the business of second-hand dealer, second-hand auto-parts dealer, junk dealer, or junk collector, or for any agent or employee of any such person, firm or corporation, to accept any pledge or to loan any money upon personal property or to purchase or receive any goods, wares, or merchandise or any article or thing, or in any manner whatsoever engage in or conduct any such business between the hour of 12 o'clock midnight on Saturday and the hour of 7 o'clock in the forenoon of the following Monday, or between the hour of 7 o'clock in the afternoon of any day other than Saturday or Sunday and the hour of 7 o'clock in the forenoon of the following day.

Section 20. If any person, firm or corporation shall engage in, conduct, manage or carry on, at the same time, more than one of the businesses defined and referred to in this ordinance, such person, firm, or corporation, shall be deemed to be engaging in, conducting, managing, and carrying on each such business separately and apart from the other, such business, and such person, firm or corporation shall comply in all respects with the provisions of this ordinance relating to each such business, and it shall be unlawful for any such person, firm, or corporation to fail, refuse or neglect so to do.

Section 21. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Five Hundred and no/100 Dollars, or by imprisonment in the City or County Jail for a period of not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each such person, firm or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for every day during any portion of which any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance is committed, continued, or permitted by such person, firm or corporation, and shall be punished therefor as provided by this ordinance.

Section 22. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The City Council hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 23. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith, and/or any part thereof are hereby repealed.

Section 24. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage and adoption of this Ordinance by said City Council, and shall cause the same to be published by one insertion in the Torrance Herald, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in the City of Torrance, and thereupon and thereafter the same shall be in full force and effect. Passed and adopted by the City Council of the City of Torrance, signed and approved by the Mayor of said City, and attested by the City Clerk of said City, this 14th day of August, 1934.
